BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL
ESTABLISHED 1901

RECIPROCITY POLICY

1. Services are available to students and graduates in good standing of ABA accredited law schools outside the New York City Metropolitan Area* that allow Brooklyn Law School students and/or graduates to use their facilities.

2. All requests for services must be made in writing by a Career Services Officer in advance of the planned visit. Reciprocity will be granted only after we respond favorably in writing to the requesting school.

3. Requests for reciprocity will not be honored during the fall recruiting season, which runs from August 1st through October 1st.

4. Services may be denied to any school which exceeds a reasonable number of requests within a given year or to individuals who misuse the facilities or services.

5. The following services will be offered ONLY to the extent that the reciprocating school provides in-kind services:
   - Counseling by appointment only
   - Online job listings (except for blind listings
     i.e., Employer Unknown or Submit to the Career Center)
   - Use of reference library

6. The services will be available to a student/graduate as follows:

   A: For a three-month period if you come into the office

   OR

   B: For 30 days if you request an online password, provided that your school gives passwords to our students.

   Requests for extensions beyond the time frames must be made in writing and is limited to three requests per year.

7. Students and graduates of other schools will not be permitted to schedule on-campus interview appointments with prospective employers.

8. Office hours: Monday – Thursday
   9:00 A.M. - 6:00 P.M.
   Friday
   9:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M.
   (in the summer, the Career Center closes at 5:00 P.M.)

* Brooklyn Law School regrets that it cannot offer its services to students and graduates in the New York Metropolitan Area.
