BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL

Theory-Practice Seminar

Balancing Competition and Government Allocation of Health Care Resources

The Berger Commission Report

Co-sponsored by Center for Health, Science and Public Policy and the ABA Antitrust Section Committee on Health Care and Pharmaceuticals

Thursday, September 20, 2007

9:00 am—12:30 pm
Lunch to Follow

LIVE WEBCAST
www.brooklaw.edu

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The final report of the Commission on Health Care Facilities in the 21st Century (the Berger Commission) recommends the closure of nine hospitals and a reconfiguration of some 48 other hospitals in New York State.

This program will explore the difficult legal and policy questions raised by such government allocation of health care resources and its impact on competition, access to care and other market forces.

SCHEDULED SPEAKERS

Martin Bienstock
Special Counsel, New York State Department of Health

Michael Cahill
Associate Professor of Law
Brooklyn Law School

Jeffrey Gold
Vice President and Special Counsel
Healthcare Association of New York State

Elinor R. Hoffmann
Assistant Attorney General
Antitrust Bureau
Office of the Attorney General for the State of New York
Adjunct Associate Professor of Law
Brooklyn Law School

Richard S. Martin
Assistant United States Attorney
U.S. Department of Justice
Antitrust Division

Amanda Masters
Senior Staff Attorney
New York Lawyers for the Public Interest

Peter J. Millock
Partner
Nixon Peabody, LLP

David Monk
Vice President
NERA Economic Consulting

Mark R. Ustin
Counsel
Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP

MODERATOR
Mark J. Botti
Partner
Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld, LLP

Students: Please join us for this event, but let us know you are coming so that there will be enough seats for everyone

LOCATION Subotnick Center

RSVP www.brooklaw.edu/rsvp
by Thursday, September 13, 2007