

Certificate in Criminal Law

Many Brooklyn Law School students express an interest in practicing in areas involving criminal law. These students may wish to devote a substantial portion of their legal education to the concepts, doctrines, ethical concerns, and skills involved in law practice focusing on the criminal justice system. Students who complete the requirements for the Certificate in Criminal Law will be eligible to pursue a Certificate in Criminal Law. The Certificate will demonstrate that the students' legal studies have provided them with significant exposure to topics involving criminal law and procedure and will attest that they begin their legal careers with substantial understanding and advanced knowledge of criminal law and its practice.

Students who elect a Certificate in Criminal Law must satisfactorily complete the following: (1) all 3 foundation courses, (2) at least 2 electives selected from the lists of a) advanced courses and/or b) seminar or specialty courses; (3) at least 2 electives selected from the skills and practice-based courses.
