A Partial List of Non-Quantifiable Factors Considered in the Admission Decision-Making Process at Brooklyn Law School

Quality of College

Honors and Awards

Academic Major

Community Service

GPA Trends

Demonstrated Leadership

Grade Inflation

Undergraduate Employment

Advanced Degree

Postcollege Work Experience/Military Duty

Transfers from College to College

Moral Character

School Attendance Interruptions

Analytic Ability

Maturity

Character References

Geographic Diversity

Letters of Evaluation

Economic Background

Personal Statement

Racial/Ethnic/Cultural Background

Stated Goals

English as a Second Language

Communication Skills

Disabilities

Application Preparation

Alumni/ae Relationship

Interviews

Demonstration of Commitment and Determination

Prior Applications

Creativity

Attention to Detail

Extracurricular Activities