HONOR CORDS AND STOLES

You may notice some Brooklyn Law School graduates wearing Honor Cords and Stoles. An Honor Cord is a token consisting of twisted cords with tassels on either end. It is awarded to members of honor societies or for various academic and non-academic achievements, awards, or honors. A Stole is an article of clothing that is similar to a scarf or a shawl. It is worn around the neck or draped over one or both shoulders. The colorful cords and stoles have different meanings and in some cases are connected to national organizations. At Brooklyn Law School, many of the Student Organizations, Pro-bono Projects, Honor Societies and Journals have honored this year's graduates with Cords and Stoles.
