PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Asian American Legal Defense & Education Fund, New York, NY 2005-2007
Communications Director – Directed media and coordinated policy strategy for national civil rights organization’s programs addressing workers’ rights, immigrants’ rights, human trafficking, educational equity, voting rights, and language access. Held press briefings and authored press releases, policy statements, talking points, and fact sheets. Secured hundreds of new media placements.

New Immigrant Community Empowerment, Jackson Heights, NY 2002-2005
Director of Community Organizing, Coordinator, Civic Participation Project, Volunteer Canvasser – Waged campaigns addressing comprehensive immigration reform and local immigrants’ rights initiatives, including access to drivers’ licenses and NYPD harassment of immigrants post-9/11, on behalf of workers’ center now affiliated with the National Day Laborer Organizing Network. Formed and coordinated multiracial coalitions on national, state, and local issues. Trained and supervised a network of hundreds of volunteers across programs and campaigns. Convened citywide marches, rallies, town halls, and press events. Developed program guiding low-wage workers with pro se wage claims in small claims court. Formed advisory partnerships with non-profits and pro bono attorneys.

Medicare Rights Center, New York, NY 2002-2004
Communications Associate, Health Care Advocate, Volunteer Hotline Supervisor – Coordinated the “American Lives” public education project on behalf of elderly and disabled communities during Presidential primary campaign. Identified Medicare and Medicaid beneficiaries to provide testimony to policymakers and journalists during Medicare reform debate, highlighting systemic health-care failures. Supervised hotline volunteers offering counsel on health-care rights and options. Handled 20 clients’ insurance appeals. Composed press releases, health policy updates, action alerts, and syndicated media column.
