Summer Internship and Postgrad Job Search: Get ready for the PILC fair!

At the Public Interest Legal Career (PILC) Fair, students formally interview and informally connect with public service employers for summer internships and postgrad jobs. The fair is remote and held on February 5th and 6th. Importantly, interview applications are due by THIS THURSDAY, January 15th at 5:00 PM.

More deadlines can be found on the next page.

1. Register and apply for interviews

1Ls and 1Ps were registered by the Public Service Law Center (you should have received multiple emails about that), so you can just log in! All other students can register here. Don't forget to use your brooklaw email address or you will not be approved.

2. Prepare your materials

Read over our resume and cover letter handouts and format your documents accordingly. Missed our workshop? Watch a recording on Canvas.

3. Attend the PSLC's PILC Prep events

Read on for our upcoming PILC programs, including a Mock Interview program for 1Ls and an employer panel.

Did you know? This year at the PILC Fair...

187 employers are interviewing 1Ls

195 employers are interviewing 2Ls

53 employers are interviewing 3Ls for postgraduate jobs

Annual Prosecutor Job Fair

#BeTheFutureOfJustice (Washington, DC)

NDAA's National Prosecutor Job Fair Returns in 2026!

Jan. 31 – Feb. 1, 2026, Washington, D.C.

Join us on Jan. 31 – Feb. 1, 2026, in Washington, D.C., for the nation's premier prosecutor job fair, connecting law students and attorneys with prosecuting agencies from across the country.

Whether you're a law student exploring career paths, an attorney considering a lateral move, or someone looking to transition into prosecution, this event is your gateway to opportunities in a justice-driven career. Meet recruiters from offices nationwide hiring for entry-level, lateral, and internship positions and gain insights into the rewarding work of public service.

Justice-driven students and attorneys who have a passion for advocating for the rights of all involved in the criminal justice system should attend. An opening night networking reception will take place on Saturday, Jan. 31 for employers and job seekers. The next day, job seekers will have an opportunity to learn more about offices and job openings, attend workshops, and be interviewed on the spot in the afternoon! Free for job seekers.

Interviews & Follow-Up

The public service job search differs from a private-sector job search in some key ways. Visit our page on public service application tips and resources for help drafting public service cover letters and preparing for interviews. If you are hoping to work in public service postgrad, make an appointment with the PSLC to plan a strategy!

NOTE: 2Ls can also apply for summer internships and 3Ls for postgrad jobs at the PILC Fair in February.

NACA CONSUMER LAW CLASS OF 2026 2-YEAR FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Jumpstart Your Career in Consumer Law: Become a NACA Fellow and Make a Real Impact from Day One!

This unique two-year fellowship offers students about to graduate law school the opportunity to work with top consumer advocates on exciting cases, gain hands-on experience, and build a pathway to success doing well, while doing good.

The National Association of Consumer Advocates (NACA) is offering two 2-year consumer law fellowships to upcoming law school graduates who are expected to sit for the July 2026 Bar exam.

Fellows will be paid as an employee of a NACA Member legal services/public interest organization (“host organization”). Access Justice Brooklyn is advertising this opportunity as an approved host organization for this fellowship; a full list of host organizations and projects can be found here.

In year one, the fellow will be placed with Access Justice Brooklyn, a non-profit legal services organization, and in year two, they will be placed at The Law Office of Ahmad Keshavarz, a private consumer law firm. This fellowship, and most related work performed by the fellow, will be located in Brooklyn, New York.

The salary for this position will be up to $80,000 per year; salary and benefits will be administered by Access Justice Brooklyn for both years of the fellowship.

Application Process and Deadline

Each applicant shall submit a resume, and a completed application form to fellowship@consumeradvocates.org. For additional details, please see the NACA website.

ALL COMPLETED APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY JANUARY 15, 2026!

Dorothy E. Roberts Public Interest Essay Competition

The competition is open to all current law students, including LLM students, from any ABA-accredited American law school as well as recent graduates of such institutions from the classes of 2018 – 2025. Submissions are limited to one per person and must be an original, unpublished academic essay. The winning essay will be published in the University of Pennsylvania Law Review Online. The author will receive a $5,000 grant to support their related public interest work or the work of a non-profit organization or pro bono clinic and a $2,000 cash prize.

TOPIC

Student-authored articles on the topic of social justice and public interest law. Submissions must focus on a specific legal issue within the realm of public interest law, including any issue relating to social justice or advancing the general welfare and good of the public. In addition, the author must include a brief grant proposal for $5,000 to support public interest work related to the essay topic. Topics can be local, state, national, or international in breadth or impact.

Deadline for submission is February 28, 2026.

Find more information about the essay and grant proposal requirements here, along with the online submission portal.

The Havens Wright Center for Social Justice

Erik Olin Wright Prize

The Erik Olin Wright Prize ($1,000) is awarded annually by the Havens Wright Center for Social Justice for a paper by a graduate or professional student that best exemplifies the concerns that animated Wright's work. You can find a brief description of his work and more information about the prize on this website.

Eligible submissions can come from any of the social sciences, history, or philosophy, and any professional discipline. Submissions are welcome from universities outside the U.S., but they should be submitted in English. One submission is allowed per applicant. Two documents are required.

1. The student work to be considered. This can be no more than 15,000 words (excluding references but including footnotes). Published works may be considered so long as they were completed within the previous calendar year (i.e., between April 16, 2025 - April 15, 2026).
2. A nominating letter from a faculty member familiar with the student's work.

Submissions, in whole or in part, may be sent between March 1 and April 15 each year and should be sent to wrightprize@ssc.wisc.edu.

Submissions received after April 15 will not be considered.
