ERIC GONZALEZ, BROOKLYN DISTRICT ATTORNEY

A deep commitment to justice and fairness drives Brooklyn District Attorney Eric Gonzalez as he leads one of the nation's largest, most diverse, and innovative prosecutors' offices. A Brooklyn native and career prosecutor, DA Gonzalez made history in 2017 when he became New York's first Latino District Attorney. He was re-elected in 2021.

Under his leadership, the Brooklyn District Attorney's office has enacted sweeping reforms to improve equity, responsiveness, efficiency, and effectiveness, while engaging communities in unprecedented ways to maintain the trust and confidence of Brooklyn's 2.6 million residents.

With more than 25 years of experience as a prosecutor, DA Gonzalez has personally tried a broad range of crimes, from homicides and sex crimes to fraud and bias-motivated violence. Guided by his extensive experience working with victims and those accused of crimes, and informed by social science and data, he has built a culture of innovation, embracing groundbreaking new initiatives to improve public safety and strengthen community trust. This approach seeks to reduce prosecutors' reliance on incarceration while seeking accountability, preventing recidivism, and addressing the root causes of crime.

DA Gonzalez grew up in East New York and Williamsburg, Brooklyn. He is a graduate of John Dewey High School in Coney Island, Cornell University, and the University of Michigan Law School. He lives in Brooklyn with his wife and three sons.
