SHERIDAN
ALBERT
LEGACY SOCIETY

The Sheridan Albert Legacy Society was renamed in 2026 to honor alumnus Sheridan Albert's transformative and strategic philanthropy. Through thoughtful estate planning, he supported Brooklyn Law School while advancing his personal financial and philanthropic goals by establishing a Charitable Remainder Trust (CRT). That CRT resulted in the largest gift in Brooklyn Law School history, enabling the Law School to endow several professorships and scholarships that have strengthened the community.

Established in 2003, the society recognizes donors who have included the Law School in their estate plans and celebrates their commitment to sustaining its mission for future generations.
